

Accounts Payable Team Lead (APAC Operations)

Feladatok

Purpose of the Role

Lead and develop Accounts Payable operations across APAC, ensuring timely and accurate invoice processing, payment execution, compliance, stakeholder management, and continuous process improvement. The role requires strong expertise in APAC operations to drive process standardization, operational excellence, and stakeholder management while supporting broader APAC objectives.

Key Responsibilities

- Lead end-to-end Accounts Payable operations across APAC.
- Serve as the AP subject matter expert for APAC Operations and ensure alignment with the AUMOVIO Accounting Standard Process Model.
- Lead, coach, and develop AP team members while ensuring service-level compliance.
- Act as the primary escalation point for AP issues involving suppliers, Finance, Purchasing, and business stakeholders across APAC.
- Drive process standardization, automation, and continuous improvement initiatives.
- Monitor and improve KPIs, including payment timeliness, backlog, exception rates, and stakeholder satisfaction.
- Lead root-cause analysis and resolution of invoice, GR/IR, master data, and payment issues.
- Support AP system enhancements, digital transformation, and workflow optimization.
- Ensure compliance with company policies, internal controls, and audit requirements.
- Build strong stakeholder relationships and manage cross-functional initiatives across APAC.

Alignment with the AUMOVIO Accounting Standard Process Model

The AP Team Lead will:

- Drive standardization and harmonization of AP processes.
- Ensure governance, compliance, and adherence to defined controls.
- Monitor end-to-end process performance through KPIs and SLAs.
- Promote continuous improvement, automation, and simplification.
- Strengthen collaboration between AP, Purchasing, Master Data, Finance, and business stakeholders.
- Support digital transformation and increase touchless processing.
- Drive sustainable knowledge management, documentation, and capability development.
- Contribute to delivering efficient, scalable, customer-focused, and globally standardized business services.
