Your responsibilities will include analyzing market trends, evaluating competitor performance, and identifying opportunities for improvement within our product portfolio. This internship offers a unique opportunity to gain hands-on experience in market research and strategic analysis in the dynamic and fast-paced environment of Autonomous Mobility, working closely with experienced professionals and contributing to the future of innovative mobility solutions.

Key Responsibilities:

- Conduct comprehensive benchmarking studies to compare Continental's performance against industry standards and competitors
- Conduct analysis on Benchmarking studies to extract information regarding the evaluation of our Products against the ones from our competitors
- Consolidate Data and Inputs regarding Awarding Win & Loss analysis to identify trends, opportunities and improvements
- Analyze competitor strategies, products, and market positioning to identify strengths, weaknesses, opportunities, and threats
- Assist in the preparation of detailed reports and presentations summarizing findings and recommendations
- Collaborate with cross-functional teams to gather relevant data and insights
- Support the development of competitive intelligence tools and databases within the Microsoft 365 environment (i.e. SharePoint Lists, Power BI)

Your profile

- Student (m/f/d) in the field of Business Administration, Marketing, Innovation & Technology Management or a related field
- Strong analytical skills with the ability to interpret complex data and trends
- Proficiency in Microsoft Office Suite (Excel, PowerPoint, Word)
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills
- Detail-oriented with strong organizational skills
- Ability to work independently and as part of a team
- Prior experience in market research or competitive analysis is a plus
